

GRAMMY Award winner Jeff Tyzik is one of America's most innovative and sought-after pops conductors. Tyzik is recognized for his brilliant arrangements, original programming, and engaging rapport with audiences of all ages. This is the fourteenth season that Tyzik has held The Dot and Paul Mason Principal Pops Conductor's Podium at the Dallas Symphony Orchestra. He also serves as Principal Pops Conductor of the Oregon Symphony and the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, a post he has held for 30 years. Tyzik made his debut with the New York Philharmonic in September 2023 and was immediately invited back in 2024 where he conducted two sold out performances at David Geffen Hall.

Frequently invited as a guest conductor, Tyzik has appeared with over one hundred orchestras, including the Boston Pops, Cincinnati Pops, Milwaukee Symphony, Pittsburgh Symphony, The Cleveland Orchestra, The New York Philharmonic, Toronto Symphony, Indianapolis Symphony, Philadelphia Orchestra, Los Angeles Philharmonic, Orchestre Philharmonique de Monte Carlo, Malaysian Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Royal Scottish National Orchestra. Tyzik previously served as the principal pops conductor of the Detroit Symphony, Florida Orchestra, Vancouver Symphony, Seattle Symphony, Erie Philharmonic & Winnipeg Symphony.

In May 2007, the Harmonia Mundi label released a recording of works by Gershwin with Tyzik conducting the RPO and acclaimed pianist Jon Nakamatsu. This recording stayed in the Top 10 on the Billboard classical chart for over three months. Alex Ross of The New Yorker called it "one of the snappiest Gershwin discs in years." "His concert is the kind of thing that's likely to give classical music a good name, perhaps even make it seem, dare I say, relevant," writes John Pitcher of the Gannett News Service.

As an accomplished composer and arranger, Tyzik has had his compositions recorded by the London Symphony Orchestra, Erich Kunzel and the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra, the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, the Vancouver Symphony, and Doc Severinsen with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in London. He has also produced and composed theme music for many of the major television networks, including ABC, NBC, HBO, and Cinemax, and released six of his own albums on Capitol, Polygram, and Amherst Records. He produced a GRAMMY Award-winning album, The Tonight Show Band with Doc Severinsen, Vol. 1. Tyzik's subsequent recordings with Severinsen garnered three more GRAMMY nominations.

Tyzik has written over 400 arrangements, orchestrations, and compositions for orchestra. A consummate musician, Tyzik regularly appears as a guest conductor in the RPO's classical subscription series. He has also been commissioned to compose original works for orchestra, including a Trombone Concerto, which was funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts and subsequently performed at Carnegie Hall. Tyzik conducted the world premiere of his original work New York Cityscapes with the Royal Scottish National Orchestra in 2010. Tyzik composed a Timpani Concerto commissioned by the RPO and also led the RPO in the premiere of his new orchestral suite, "Images: Musical Impressions of an Art Gallery," to rave reviews. In the 2015/16 season, Tyzik premiered his new work Jazz Concerto for Violin and Orchestra during his Philharmonic Series performance with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra. In 2018, the Eastman Wind Ensemble released Images, an all-Tyzik CD of his compositions for Wind Ensemble. The Eastman Wind Ensemble recently recorded Tyzik's Jazz Concerto for Soprano Saxophone and Wind Ensemble and Symphonies for release in the fall of 2024.

In 2023, Jeff Tyzik launched his new publishing company, www.tyzikmusic.com. This digital site features over 150 arrangements, orchestrations, and compositions for Symphony Orchestra, Chamber Music ensembles, and Wind Ensemble.

A native of Hyde Park, New York, Tyzik began his life in music when he first picked up a cornet at age nine. He studied both classical and jazz throughout high school and went on to earn both his Bachelor's and Master's degrees from the Eastman School of Music. While there, he studied composition/arranging with Radio City Music Hall's Ray Wright and jazz studies with Chuck Mangione. Tyzik subsequently toured with Mangione as lead trumpet and worked on five Mangione recordings as a producer and performer from 1976 to 1981.

Committed to performing music of all genres, Tyzik has collaborated with such diverse artists as Leslie Odom Jr., Megan Hilty, Chris Botti, Matthew Morrison, Wynonna Judd, Sutton Foster, Tony Bennett, Art Garfunkel, Dawn Upshaw, Marilyn Horne, Arturo Sandoval, The Chieftains, Mark O'Connor, Doc Severinsen, and John Pizzarelli. Tyzik has created numerous original programs that include the greatest music from jazz, classical, Motown, Broadway, film, dance, Latin, and swing.

With co-producers Greenberg Artists and Schirmer Theatrical, Jeff Tyzik has created 20 new orchestra pops programs that have been presented by 150 orchestras in the past three seasons.
